RESOLUTION NO. 1999 - 243

RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF PIMA COUNTY ARIZONA; RELATING TO HOUSING AND INFRASTRUCTURE SYSTEMS; DESIGNATING THE COMMUNITY OF AJO AS A COLONIA.

WHEREAS, written designation of an area as a Colonia, as defined by the United States Department of Agriculture, is necessary before certain state and federal funds can be made available to improve infrastructure systems and housing within those communities; and

WHEREAS, identifiable communities within Pima County which lack potable water supplies, adequate sewer systems, decent safe and sanitary housing, and have inadequate roads and drainage are eligible for designation as Colonias; and

WHEREAS, a Colonia development has occurred and is recognized in Pima County as the Community of Ajo;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Supervisors of Pima County, Arizona, as follows:

1. That the area encompassed by the Community of Ajo, as designated in Exhibit A and attached hereto, is hereby designated as a Colonia because it lacks an adequate potable water supply, an adequate sewage system, decent, safe, sanitary housing, and has inadequate roads and drainage.
2. All of the area encompassed by the Community of Ajo existed as a Colonia before October 1, 1989.

RESOLVED by the Board of Supervisors of Pima County, Arizona, this 7th day of December, 1999.
